

WALKING DISTANCE

Moments in Time Trail

A half mile loop that touches the lake and the rainforest with interpretive signs along the way. Stop and sit on one of the benches and wait for wildlife to appear.

<https://www.wta.org/go-hiking/hikes/moments-in-time-trail>

Marymere Falls Trail

This two mile out-and-back through old growth forest ends with a big waterfall. If you're only going to do one hike this weekend, do this one. The trail is flat with some stairs and some tourists. Take the pedestrian tunnel under highway 101 to get there.

<https://www.wta.org/go-hiking/hikes/marymere-falls>

Mt Storm King Trail

This is a challenging hike up a real mountain: 4 miles out-and-back, 2000 ft elevation gain. Hiking poles recommended. You will be rewarded half way up with views of the sea. If you choose to continue the ascent, be ready for a rope scramble up steep trails to the top. If you're not sure about this one, you can read more details and trail reports at

<https://www.wta.org/go-hiking/hikes/mount-storm-king>

Lake Crescent Lodge

Just around the corner from Naturebridge. Very cute, with kayak and canoe rentals!

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/tj7qUwzR9627M9FD9>

Barnes Creek Trail

A continuation of the Marymere Falls trail with less tourists and very cool log bridges. Follow this rolling creekside forest trail for miles. This is where multi-day backpacking trips through the park start. Trail continues indefinitely...consult a map!

<https://www.wta.org/go-hiking/hikes/barnes-creek>

And more...

If you find anything cool that isn't on this list, please tell us about it!

DRIVING DISTANCE

Tidepooling

Salt Creek Recreation Area

Look up the tide chart and go at low tide. You'll see crabs, sea anemones, and Canada!

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/VfFg7WTL1gZjCQpL9>

Salmon Cascades

Watch fish try to jump up a waterfall. Peak season for Coho salmon is September and October!

<https://www.nps.gov/places/000/salmon-cascades.htm>

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/gnRDxnpYkfU1gzEE7>

Granny's Cafe

A greasy spoon with ice cream and funny animals

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/8vT1KUTKPkt94CPj7>

Cape Flattery

boardwalk to the northwesternmost point in the USA.

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/oAc6oFbzVDE6xYbJA>

John's Beachcombing Museum

Pay $5 to see 40 years of beach gathering by one man. If you're reading this, please google the museum name and look at the photos on google maps

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/iGGVSHLvS4Ufjr47>

Glines Canyon Dam Overlook

The largest dam removal project in US history. Stand on the remains of the dam and stare down into the abyss.

It's a 7 mile hike.

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/GsBN3cLzje18YzJM9>

And more...

Here are some keywords to try: “surfboard rentals”, “hotsprings”, “Hurricane Ridge”, “Hoh River Trail to Blue Glacier”, “Devil's Punchbowl”,

The best resource for finding hikes might be wta.org - check out their map

If you find anything cool that isn't on this list, please tell us about it!